

Stoney Creek Jr. Cougars: Booth Spotter Guide

As a booth spotter for the Stoney Creek Jr. Cougars, your role is crucial in supporting the game announcer by providing detailed and accurate information about the plays on the field. This guide outlines your responsibilities and how you can effectively assist in delivering a smooth and engaging game experience.

Role Overview

1. Assisting the Announcer:

- Your main responsibility is to help the announcer by identifying which players made key plays, such as tackles, touchdowns, or significant defensive actions.
- You will not speak directly into the microphone. Instead, you will provide information to the announcer to ensure accurate and timely announcements.

2. Watching the Game:

- Maintain a close watch on the game at all times to track player actions and movements.
- Bringing binoculars is optional but can help in tracking plays on the far side of the field.

3. Sharing the Roster Sheet:

- You will be provided with a roster sheet for both teams. Share this sheet with the announcer to aid in accurately identifying players during the game.

During the Game

1. Communication with the Announcer:

- Relay information clearly and promptly to the announcer. Provide the jersey numbers and names of players involved in significant plays.
- Ensure that your communication is efficient so that the announcer can integrate the information seamlessly into their commentary.

2. Staying Focused:

- Stay attentive to the game, avoiding distractions. Your ability to spot and identify key plays quickly is essential for accurate announcing.
  - Pay attention to all areas of the field, as important actions may occur away from the ball carrier.

Additional Tips

1. Preparation:

- Familiarize yourself with the players' rosters and jersey numbers before the game begins. This will help you quickly identify players during the game.
- Coordinate with the announcer before the game to establish an effective communication system.

2. Booth Etiquette:

- Maintain a quiet and focused environment in the booth. Your role is to assist, not to interact with the crowd or make personal comments.

By following these guidelines, you will significantly contribute to an enjoyable and well-coordinated game experience for players, fans, and the community. Thank you for your valuable support as a booth spotter for the Stoney Creek Jr. Cougars!
