

Stoney Creek Jr. Cougars: Photographer Guide

As the photographer for the Stoney Creek Jr. Cougars, your role is to capture memorable moments from both the football games and cheerleading performances. This guide provides instructions on how to take and upload photos to ensure they are accessible for the team and families.

Photography Instructions

1. Capturing the Action:

- Football: Focus on key moments such as plays, touchdowns, tackles, and player interactions. Try to get a mix of close-ups and wider shots to cover different aspects of the game.
- Cheerleading: Capture routines, stunts, and group formations. Look for dynamic shots that highlight the energy and enthusiasm of the cheerleaders.

2. Photo Quality:

- Ensure that your photos are clear and well-composed. Avoid blurry or poorly lit images.
 - Take multiple shots of important moments to increase the chances of getting great photos.
-

Post-Game Instructions

1. Uploading Photos:

- After the game, upload your photos to Shutterfly. Use the following login credentials:
 - Username: Stoneycougars@gmail.com
 - Password: SCJC2022!

2. Organizing Photos:

- Organize the photos into appropriate albums or folders based on the event, such as separate albums for football and cheerleading. This will make it easier for viewers to find and enjoy the photos.

3. File Naming:

- Ensure that photo files are named clearly and consistently. This will help in identifying and locating specific photos.

Additional Tips

1. Preparation:

- Arrive early to set up your equipment and get familiar with the surroundings. This will help you capture better shots right from the start.

2. Respect the Action:

- Stay out of the way of players, cheerleaders, and officials. Position yourself so you can capture great shots without interfering with the game or performances.

3. Timing:

- Upload the photos as soon as possible after the game to ensure they are available for review and sharing in a timely manner.

By following these guidelines, you will help capture and share the exciting moments of both football and cheerleading activities for the Stoney Creek Jr. Cougars. Thank you for your dedication and for providing valuable memories for the team and fans!