

Stoney Creek Jr. Cougars: Clean-Up Crew Guide

As a clean-up crew member for the Stoney Creek Jr. Cougars, you play an essential role in maintaining the facility and ensuring a clean environment for future events. This guide outlines your responsibilities and provides key instructions for your clean-up duties.

Clean-Up Responsibilities

1. Post-Game Clean-Up:

- Timing: Begin clean-up duties immediately after the game ends.
- Home and Away Stands:
 - Walk through both the home and away stands to collect any trash left behind by spectators. This includes checking under seats and in aisles.
 - Collect and dispose of all found trash into the provided garbage bins or bags.
- Concourse Areas:
 - Inspect the concourse areas and other surrounding spaces for litter or trash.
 - Ensure these areas are cleaned and free of debris. Collect and dispose of trash properly.

2. Disposal of Trash:

- Use the provided garbage bins or bags for all collected trash.
 - Ensure trash is disposed of in the designated waste disposal areas or containers.

Maintaining the Facility

1. Respect the Facility:

- Remember, we are guests of the facility. Treat the venue with respect and aim to leave it in better condition than we found it.
- Follow any additional instructions provided by the facility staff.

2. Team Coordination:

- Work together with other clean-up crew members to cover all areas effectively.
- Communicate and coordinate tasks to ensure that no areas are missed and that the clean-up process is efficient.

3. Final Inspection:

- After completing the initial clean-up, perform a final walkthrough of the stands, concourses, and surrounding areas to ensure that no trash remains.

Final Notes

1. Attention to Detail:

- Pay close attention to detail to ensure thorough cleaning. Ensure that all areas are free from litter and debris.

2. Professionalism:

- Maintain a professional demeanor throughout your duties. Your efforts contribute to a positive experience for all attendees and reflect well on our organization.

3. Feedback:

- Report any issues or concerns about the facility or clean-up process to the event coordinator or facility manager.

Thank you for your dedication to keeping the Stoney Creek Jr. Cougars' game day environment clean and welcoming. Your efforts are greatly appreciated and help us maintain a positive relationship with the facility!
